RapNet Launches New Android App to Access the Diamond Market on the Go

Android Users Can Now Access the Industry's Primary Tool with a Custom Built App

New York, January 7th, 2015: RapNet has just released a new mobile app for Android, following the successful launch of the iPhone app.

The app allows RapNet members to conduct their business on the go, and stay on top of the market wherever they are. The app includes advanced searches, saved searches and diamond tracking. Settings are synced between the app and the desktop allowing seamless transitions between mobile and the office.

Saville Stern, Chief Operating Officer of RapNet, says about the Android app: "One of our primary goals is to meet the needs of our growing mobile membership. This app is another important step in that direction. We will keep developing and improving our suite of Android and iOS mobile apps to provide clients with a complete trading solution."

"I am excited that RapNet will be kicking off 2015 with the eagerly awaited Android version of our successful RapNet iOS app," says Jonny Katz, who manages global operations. "We have carefully listened to the needs of our RapNet community and continue to provide essential tools covering the mobile market."

The RapNet Android app is available on Google Play,
